A man and a woman want the same thing, and are ready to fight each other for it . . . "I love all of Sue Moorcroft's books!" (Katie Fforde) Liza Reece has a dream of running her own business. So when she's given an opportunity to take over the holistic center she works at, she jumps at the chance. The only problem is money—which she has none of. And unfortunately for her, someone else has his eyes on her prize . . . Dominic Christy has his own dream and he's not going to be stopped. He has the money that's needed to turn a somewhat low-rent holistic center into something special that he can call his own. And his plans definitely don't include Liza and her team of misfits. But dreams have a way of changing—and as Dominic and Liza scramble to get what they want for themselves, they start wanting something else too, in this emotional, romantic novel by the award-winning author of The Christmas Promise.

Tess Riddell reckons her beloved Freelander is more reliable than any man - especially her ex-fiance Olly Gray. She's moving on from her old life and into the perfect cottage in the country. Miles Rattenbury's passions? Old cars and new women! Romance? He's into fun rather than commitment. When Tess crashes the Freelander into his breakdown truck, they find that they're nearly neighbours - yet worlds apart. Despite her overprotective parents and a suddenly attentive Olly, she discovers the joys of village life and even forms an unlikely friendship with Miles. Then, just as their relationship develops into something deeper, an old flame comes looking for him. Is their love strong enough to overcome the past? Or will it take more than either of them is prepared to give?

Revenge and love: it's a thin line 'The writing's on the wall for Cleo and Gav. The bedroom wall, to be precise. And it says 'This marriage is over.' Wounded and furious, Cleo embarks on a night out with the girls, which turns into a glorious one night stand with! Justin, centrefold material and irrepressibly irresponsible. He loves a little wildness in a womam ...

When Tamara Rix's sister Lyddie is involved in a hit-and-run accident that leaves her in need of constant care, Tamara resolves to remain in the village she grew up in. Tamara would do anything for her sister, even sacrifice a long-term relationship. But when Lyddie's teenage sweetheart Jed Cassius returns to Middledip, he brings news that shakes the Rix family to their core. Jed's life is shrouded in mystery, particularly his job, but despite his strange background, Tamara can't help being intrigued by him. Can Tamara find a balance between her love for Lyddie and growing feelings for Jed, or will she discover that some kinds of love just don't mix? Sue's novel Love & Freedom won the Festival of Romance Best Romantic Read Award 2011 Her current novel, Dream a Little Dream, was shortlisted for the Romantic Novel of the Year Award from the Romantic Novelists' Association All that Mullarkey was selected as a Starbucks 'Pick of the Week' in the UK

This Christmas, the villagers of Middledip are off on a very Swiss adventure...

Star-crossed lovers tempt fate in a compelling romance from the author of All That Mullarkey: "I love all of Sue Moorcroft's books!" (Katie Fforde, #1 bestselling author of A Country Escape). When Diane Jenner's husband is hurt in a helicopter crash, she discovers a secret that changes her life. And it's all about money, the kind of money the Jenners have never had. James North has money, but he knows it doesn't buy happiness. He's been a rock for his wayward wife and troubled daughter—but that doesn't stop him from wanting Diane. James and Diane have something in common: they always put family first. Which means that what happens in the back of James's Mercedes is a really, really bad idea. "Once I'd opened the cover of Want to Know a Secret?, I did very little apart from sit and read from the beginning to the satisfying end." —Novelicious "A heart-warming and uplifting story and one that will have you cheering out loud if you're not very careful." —The Bookbag

From two-time Newbery award-winning author Katherine Paterson. When Lyddie and her younger brother are hired out as servants to help pay off their family farm's debts, Lyddie is determined to find a way to reunite her family once again. Hearing about all the money a girl can make working in the textile mills in Lowell, Massachusetts, she makes her way there, only to find that her dreams of returning home may never come true. Includes an all-new common core aligned educator's guide. "Rich in historical detail...a superb story of grit, determination, and personal growth." —The Horn Book, starred review "Lyddie is full of life, full of lives, full of reality." —The New York Times Book Review An ALA Notable Book An ALA Best Book for Young Adults A Booklist Editor's Choice American Bookseller "Pick of the Lists" School Library Journal Best Book Parents magazine Best Book

To many, Imen McDonnell's life reads as a modern fairytale. Happily going about her business as a young American woman embarking upon a successful career in broadcast production, she was introduced to a dashing Irish farmer and fell instantly in love. In short order, Imen found herself leaving behind her work, her country, and her family and friends to start a life from scratch on a centuries-old family dairy farm in County Limerick. The Farmette Cookbook is more than just a cookbook, it's a chronicle of Imen's journey, embracing her new identity as a farmer's wife, discovering new tastes, feeding her family, and finding her way around the Irish kitchen, where traditional cooking trumps quick and convenient. Here, Imen shares her tried-and-true classic Irish recipes, infused with a contemporary American twist: from her Best Brown Bread, Fish-'n'-Chip Pie, and Richard's "Proper" Irish Coffee to Farmhouse Buttermilk Beignets, Hot-Smoked Burren Salmon Tacos, and an Irish Hedgerow Shandy. Highlighting farmhouse skills (such as butter and cheese making) and the use of local, wholesome ingredients, Imen invites us into her kitchen and her world, through stories and recipes, for a taste of the Irish countryside.
